6280 KIMBERLY MILL LN, ATLANTA, FULTON, GEORGIA, 30349

Fulton County can be divided into three regions, North, South and Central; Central Fulton County is basically the City of Atlanta with a population of 425,200. Atlanta is a mixture of gleaming skyscrapers, historic communities and pulsing nightlife. Downtown Atlanta is the heart of the business district, with companies such as SunTrust, CNN and BellSouth calling it home. An 11-block portion of downtown is occupied by The Peachtree Centre, a mix of office towers, restaurants and hotels.

Midtown is known for its unique residential communities and its cultural arts scene. The Woodruff Arts Centre houses the Atlanta Symphony, the Alliance and Studio Theatres and the High Museum of Art. Continuing north you will discover Buckhead, a mecca of elegant Southern homes which includes the Georgia Governor's Mansion, exclusive shopping with around 1,400 retail outlets, thriving commercial developments and many hotels.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA (G.A.)

Economy and Industry

Atlanta boasts the fourth largest concentration of Fortune 500 companies in the US. Over 75% of Fortune 1000 companies have business operations in the metropolitan area, helping to make the gross economy of metropolitan Atlanta reach $ 270 billion, which accounts for more than two thirds of the total state economy of Georgia.

Several major national and international companies hold their headquarters in metro Atlanta, including four Fortune 100 companies, namely, Coca-Cola, Home Depot, United Parcel Service and Delta Air Lines. The headquarters of AT & T the second largest mobile operator in the United States is located near Lenox Square, and high technology accounts for over 126,700 jobs in the area. Delta Air Lines is the largest employer in the city and the third largest within the metropolitan area.

Delta operates the world's largest airline hub at Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International, which is the world's busiest airport, both in terms of passenger traffic and aircraft. The airport, since its construction in the 1950s, serves as a key driver of economic growth in Atlanta.

Education is also an important economic factor in Atlanta with over 30 institutions for higher education. Georgia Institute of Technology is a university research facility that has been ranked among the nations top ten public universities since 1999 by U.S. News & World Report. Emory University, a prominent liberal arts and research institution has been consistently ranked as one of the top 20 schools in the United States.

Our Target Investment Areas

There are 14 metro area counties that encompass over 50 municipalities and the metro area spans nearly 50 miles in all directions. Atlanta can be divided into four distinct, geographic regions. The counties (and the cities) within each region are considered part of the metro area. The actual City of Atlanta is located in Fulton County, with a portion falling in DeKalb.

We target the following areas:

- Fulton County
- DeKalb County
- Cobb County
- Clayton County
